Assessment

5. Modes of assessment will include written examinations, coursework, group presentations and group written work.
6. There will be an assessment period in January/February for modules that are delivered in Term 1.
7. All module retakes shall normally take place at the next normal occasion except where specified below.
8. Candidates who have failed modules which are not required for progression to the dissertation may elect to be re-assessed in those modules in the August following the first occasion of assessment.
9. Candidates who have failed modules which are required for progression to the dissertation may elect to be re-assessed in the August following the first occasion of assessment. The outcome of the re-assessment shall not be confirmed until after the dissertation submission date and therefore candidates may elect to submit their dissertation in the following March as an alternative to the next normal occasion.
10. Candidates will normally be permitted to take up to three of their optional modules via part-time delivery through the Global Learning Centre in the Business School (provided the permitted duration on the programme will not be exceeded) and be assessed in accordance with the assessment specified in the relevant module outline(s); such candidates may be unable to complete the programme within the normal timescale.
11. All candidates must submit a dissertation of not more than 12,000 words including footnotes and endnotes, but excluding title page, contents page, acknowledgments, diagrams, tables, bibliography, references and appendices. Candidates who fail the dissertation on first submission in September may elect to resubmit in the following January/February as an alternative to the next normal occasion.
