Assessment

6. Modes of assessment will include written examinations, coursework and group presentations.
7. There will be an assessment period in January/February for modules that are delivered in Term 1.
8. Candidates who have failed modules which are assessed in the January/February and/or May/June assessment period shall normally be required to resit all failed modules in the following August assessment period. Candidates whose failed modules are worth more than 30 credits may however elect to defer the submission of their dissertation until January of the following year.
9. Candidates will normally be permitted to take one or two of their optional modules via part-time delivery through the Centre for Global Learning and Executive Education in the Business School (provided the permitted duration on the programme will not be exceeded) and be assessed in accordance with the assessment specified in the relevant module outline(s); such candidates may be unable to complete the programme within the normal timescale.
10. Candidates must submit a dissertation of not more than 12,000 words. Candidates who fail the dissertation on first submission in September may resubmit the following January/February as an alternative to the next normal occasion.
11. Modules marked with a ~ must be passed at 50% or above; a mark of 40-49% cannot be compensated. Of the two modules marked ~+, at least one must be passed at 50% or above.
12. Candidates who select a CFLS credit-bearing language module must select 185 credits in total.
