

These programme regulations should be read in conjunction with the University's core regulations for postgraduate programmes.

MA Intercultural Communication and Education (X3K807)

1. Location: Durham City
2. Duration: 12 months (full-time) or 36 months (Part-time). The programme will normally begin in October each year for full-time students and in October for part-time students.
3. Candidates whose first language is not English will normally be required to possess a recent English language test score of 7.0 overall or higher (with no element under 6.5) in IELTS, or an equivalent qualification.

Programme structure

4. Candidates shall study and be assessed in the following modules:

		Credit value
Research Methods in Education	EDUC44030	30
Intercultural and International Education	EDUC40530	30
Intercultural Communication	EDUC41730	30
MA Dissertation	EDUC56660	60

5. Candidates shall also study and be assessed in modules to the value of 30 credits from a choice of all Level 4 modules run by the School of Education.

Assessment, progression and award

6. If a candidate fails a module he/she may be given an opportunity to resit the relevant examination(s) before the end of the academic year at a time to be determined by the Department.
7. In accordance with the core regulations, students may exit the programme with the following lower awards: Postgraduate Certificate in Intercultural Communication and Education (60 credits); Postgraduate Diploma in Intercultural Communication and Education (120 credits).
8. Candidates who originally registered for the award of MA Intercultural Communication and Education who wish to transfer to the EdD programme must satisfactorily complete all taught modules and have satisfied a Transfer Review Panel derived from the School of Education 's Board of Examiners before proceeding to the level 5 compulsory modules and subsequently submitting their thesis.