

These programme regulations should be read in conjunction with the University's core regulations for undergraduate programmes, and the marking and classification conventions for undergraduate programmes.

LLB Law with Foundation (M102)

1. This programme is available at Durham City, in full- (one year) or part-time (two years) mode of study.

Admissions

2. Admissions Criteria: Applicants would normally have completed the National Admissions Test for Law (LNAT) at point of application. Their performance would then be considered by the department alongside their application before an offer is made.

Level 0 (Foundation)

3. Candidates shall study and be assessed in the following modules:

		Credit value
Foundation Skills	FOUD0827	10
English Literature 1	FOUD0947	10
Academic Communication	FOUD0977	10
Concepts, Methods & Theories in Social Science 1	FOUD01C7	10
Concepts, Methods & Theories in Arts & Humanities 1	FOUD01E7	10
Academic Practice 1	FOUD0987	10
Academic Practice 2	FOUD0991	20
Concepts, Methods & Theories in Social Science 2	FOUD01D7	10
Concepts, Methods & Theories in Arts & Humanities 2	FOUD01F7	10
English Literature 2	FOUD0957	10
Modern History	FOUD0097	10

Assessment, progression and award

4. The Foundation Programme consists of modules to the value of 120 credits at Level 0;
5. Passing all modules on this programme at 50% or higher qualifies a student to progress to Level 1 of the following degree programmes:
Law
6. Any student who achieves sufficient credit for progression, but chooses not to progress, is eligible for the award of a Foundation Year Certificate. Any student who is not eligible to progress, but who nonetheless passes all modules on this programme at 40% or higher, is eligible for the award of a Foundation Year Certificate;
7. A student who achieves a grade lower than 50% in any of the Level 0 modules at the first attempt is allowed one further attempt to pass by re-sitting the those assessment element(s), of the failed assessment components(s) of each failed modules;
8. The Pass Lists issued following the examinations at the end of the academic year shall indicate students who are required to be re-examined;
9. For each student the Board of Examiners shall specify which modules have been failed, which module assessment element(s) must be re-examined, and the form of the re-examination;
10. A student must make his/her first attempt at the assessment of a module during, or at the end of, the academic year in which the module was studied;
11. The re-examination (without repeating the module itself) will normally be in the June and July/August following the first attempt;
12. Marks awarded for modules completed for Level 0 assessments will not count towards the final classification of the degree to be awarded;

13. The Pass Lists for the Level 0 assessments in May/June and in July/August shall list the names of students who have satisfactorily completed their Foundation Programme, and are eligible to a) pass and progress to Level 1 of a named degree programme in accordance with the regulations b) pass but not progress;
14. If a student wishes to progress to an alternative degree destination a concession may be sought from the Head of the relevant Faculty in which the proposed programme is offered subject to the agreement of the Foundation Programme and the Head of the relevant Faculty;
15. Any student who successfully completes the Foundation Programme and chooses to progress to Level 1, but who fails to achieve 120 credits at Level 1 or is withdrawn from the University shall be eligible for the award of a Foundation Year Certificate;
16. The Foundation Programme has been granted an exemption from the University Regulations to allow students to apply for APL up to and including 1st December of their first year of study;
17. Any student who successfully completes the Foundation Programme and chooses to progress to Level 1, but who fails to achieve 120 credits at Level 1 or is withdrawn from the University shall be eligible for the award of a Foundation Year Certificate.