Assessment, progression and award

5. Modes of assessment will include written examinations, coursework and group presentations.
6. There will be an assessment period in May/June for modules that are delivered in Term 1 and an assessment period in August/September for modules that are delivered in Term 2.

7. Candidates who have failed modules which are assessed in the May/June and/or August/September assessment period shall normally be required to resit all failed modules in the following January. Candidates whose failed modules are worth 30 or more credits may however elect to defer the submission of their dissertation until the following March.
8. Candidates will normally be permitted to take one or two of their optional modules via part-time delivery (as offered on the MA Management programme) (provided the permitted duration on the programme will not be exceeded) and be assessed in accordance with the assessment specified in the relevant module outline(s); such candidates may be unable to complete the programme within the normal timescale.
9. Candidates must submit a dissertation of not more than 12,000 words by 3 December. Candidates who fail the dissertation on first submission in December may resubmit the following March as an alternative to the next normal occasion.
10. Modules marked with a ~ must be passed at 50% or above; a mark of 40-49% cannot be compensated. Of the two modules marked ~+, at least one must be passed at 50% or above.
11. Modules marked with a * are not available in 2020/21.
