Assessment, progression and award

- Modes of assessment will include written examinations, coursework, group presentations and written group work.
- There will be an assessment period in January/February for modules that are delivered in Term 1.

7. Candidates who have failed modules which are assessed in the January/February and/or May/June assessment period shall normally be required to resit all failed modules in the following August assessment period. Candidates whose failed modules are worth 30 or more credits may however elect to defer the submission of their dissertation until January of the following year.
8. All candidates must submit a dissertation of not more than 15,000 words. Candidates who fail the dissertation on first submission in September may elect to resubmit in the following January/February as an alternative to the next normal occasion.
9. Modules marked with a ~ must be passed at 50% or above; a mark of 40-49% cannot be compensated.
10. Modules marked with a * are not available in 2024/25.
11. Candidates who select a CFLS credit-bearing language module must select 185 credits in total.
