

These programme regulations should be read in conjunction with the University's core regulations for postgraduate programmes, and the marking and classification conventions for postgraduate programmes.

MA International Cultural Heritage Management (V4K107)

1. This programme is available at Durham City in a full-time (12 months) or part-time (24 months) mode of study.

Programme Structure

2. Candidates shall study and be assessed in the following modules:

		Credit Value
Debating Heritage and Museums	ARCH43615	15
Managing Cultural Heritage in Context ~	ARCH41760	60
Dissertation or Professional Practice Project	ARCH44460	60
Protecting World Heritage	ARCH44315	15
Professional Placement / Professional Research Project (ICHM)	ARCH44630	30

Assessment

3. Candidates who fail the dissertation/report on first submission in September may elect to resubmit in the following January/February as an alternative to the next normal occasion.
4. Modules marked with ~ must be passed at 50% or above; a mark of 40-49% cannot be compensated.
5. Students registered for the Masters degree who have achieved a mark of at least 50% on modules carrying at least 120 credits, and on such individual modules as are indicated in the programme regulations, are eligible for the award of Postgraduate Diploma. A Postgraduate Diploma with Distinction will be awarded to students who achieve an average mark of at least 70% on modules carrying at least 120 credits and a Postgraduate Diploma with Merit to those who achieve an average mark of 60%. Students shall normally proceed to this award only after any opportunity for re-examination at Masters level has been exhausted.
6. Students registered for the Masters degree who have achieved a mark of at least 50% on modules carrying at least 60 credits, and on such individual modules as are indicated in the programme regulations, are eligible for the award of Postgraduate Certificate. A Postgraduate Certificate with Distinction will be awarded to students who achieve an overall average mark of at least 70% across all the modules taken, and a Postgraduate Certificate with Merit to those who achieve an average mark of 60%. Students shall normally proceed to this award only after any opportunity for re-examination at Masters level has been exhausted.