 - c. successfully complete Level 2 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) programme so as to be eligible to progress to Level 3 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) programme.
17. Students who the Board of Examiners for the Department of Anthropology deem to have made satisfactory progress on the year abroad will continue to Level 3 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Year Abroad) (C8L6) programme. Students who have not made satisfactory progress on the year abroad will not be permitted to continue on the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Year Abroad) (C8L6) programme, but must instead proceed to Level 3 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) programme.

Placement Year

18. Students admitted to the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) programme are able to apply to transfer to the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Placement Year) programme (C86L). Students taking the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Placement Year) (C86L) will undertake an approved placement in a UK or overseas organisation consisting of at least 40 weeks of professional-level work experience.

Following the placement year, students will be required to successfully complete a placement assessment as agreed by the Department, to determine whether the programme learning outcomes have been met. Assessment does not contribute to the marks used to determine the award of the degree but successful completion is required to qualify for the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Placement Year) (C86L). If a student fails, they will transfer to the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) programme.

19. Candidates wishing to transfer to the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Placement Year) (C86L) must:
 - a. have successfully completed Level 1 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) and progressed to Level 2 of the programme; and
 - b. secure a placement opportunity comprising at least 40 weeks of professional-level work experience, agreed with the Departmental Placement Year Convenor and Faculty Placement Officer; and
 - c. successfully complete Level 2 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86) so as to be eligible to progress to Level 3 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (CL86).
20. Students whom the Board of Examiners for the Department of Anthropology deem to have fulfilled the programme learning outcomes and who successfully pass the placement assessment will continue to Level 3 of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Placement Year) (C86L). Students who fail will not be permitted to continue on the BSc Psychology and Anthropology (with Placement Year) (C86L) programme, but must instead proceed to the final year of the BSc Psychology and Anthropology programme (CL86).
