9. In place of an Exploration module in either List G (Michaelmas Term) or List H (Epiphany Term), candidates may choose to undertake a language module offered by the University's Centre for Foreign Language Study in either Korean or Japanese, subject to timetabling-compatibility and to the approval by the Centre. If candidates choose a CFLS module in this way, then they will take 50 credits in one term and 70 credits the other. This is because they are replacing a single-term module with one that runs throughout both Michaelmas and Epiphany Terms.

Year 3 (Year Abroad)

10. Students are required to complete a full academic year studying Chinese at an educational institution in China, and to complete all of the assessments associated with their studies.
11. During their time abroad, students will complete a Year Abroad assignment for the language they will study at Level 3. The assignments will be submitted before the start of the Michaelmas Term of the candidate's final year of study. Part-time candidates will be assessed at the start of the year in which the Level 3 compulsory language module is taken. Candidates who pass will remain on the BA Chinese Studies with Year Abroad (T102). Those who fail will be transferred to the non-year abroad version of the programme, the BA Chinese Studies (T104).

Level 3 (Degree)

12. Candidates must study and be assessed in the following modules to the value of 100 credits:

		Credit value
Dissertation in Chinese Studies ~	CHNS3042	40
